

EU/Nato/UN

Saturday/Sunday - April 5th & 6th

EU seeks unity in first strike back at Trump tariffs

Aid cuts could leave more women dying in pregnancy and birth, UN says

UN calls for Myanmar support as quake death toll reaches 3,354

EU ministers to meet as global markets tumble

Monday - April 7th

The US ends lifesaving food aid for millions. The World Food Program calls it a 'death sentence'

EU response to Trump's tariffs: a delicate balance

EU trade ministers discuss US tariffs

Could France's Macron be the new leader of Europe?

Poland: A NATO ally voices concern

EU Commission proposes 25% counter-tariffs on some US imports, document shows

EU says it prefers negotiations, but proposes first tariffs on US imports

EU will target less than €26 bln worth of U.S. imports, Sefcovic says

Euro zone investor morale in April hammered by Trump tariffs

World Health Day promotes healthy futures for mothers and babies

Tuesday - April 8th

EU's von der Leyen urges China to ensure responsible tariff response

US Defense Secretary fires top military envoy to NATO

EU border agency reviewing 12 cases of potential rights violations by Greece

US tells UN: we have no patience for bad faith talks on war in Ukraine

UN chief rejects new Israeli plan to control Gaza aid

Any attempt to break up Bosnia is unacceptable, EU's Kallas warns

WTO aims to reduce staffing costs after US funding pause

UN chief says Palestinians in Gaza in 'death loop', demands end to blockade

Wednesday - April 9th

EU readies €20 billion retaliation against Trump's tariffs

New EU rules to cut loss of plastic pellets into the environment

A plan to shape Europe's leadership in artificial intelligence

NATO's Rutte wants closer ties with Japan in changing world

UN chief says Israel has turned Gaza into "a killing field"

Thursday - April 10th

Soya beans: China and EU's secret weapon against Trump's tariff wars?

EU's SpaceX rival demands more than financial fuel

How UN sanctions on Iran could be restored

Friday - April 11th

EU's Kallas: EU countries committed over 23 bln euros for Ukraine so far in 2025

EU trade chief Sefcovic to go to Washington for talks on Monday

EU pledges unity on trade challenges, notes US tariffs harder on own economy than on EU

In trade crisis, China courts the EU as a hedge against Trump

EU irked by Turkish warnings against Greece-Cyprus-Israel electricity cable link, Cyprus says

EU to target nine Iranians over citizen detentions, diplomats say

EU strikes deal on new toy safety rules to better protect children's health

EU project uses AI to improve diagnosis and care

UN agrees deal on shipping emissions despite US threats

U.N. aid chief says to cut 20% of staff due to funding shortfall

Impact of tariffs on developing countries could be 'catastrophic', says UN trade agency

UN rights office warns Israel's actions in Gaza threaten Palestinian existence

UN: 36 recent Israeli strikes on Gaza killed only women, children

UN says 36 Israeli attacks killed only Palestinian women, children in Gaza

European Commission plans emergency measures to combat bird flu in Poland